

EMPOWERMENT SOCIETY

● Catalysts ● Visionaries ● Leaders

Empowerment Society members share a commitment to the sustainability and vision of YWCA Mankato, believing deeply in its mission to eliminate racism, empower women, and promote peace, justice, freedom and dignity for all. These individuals invest in their values through making a 3-year or more pledge of at least $1,000 per year, thereby fueling the work of YWCA Mankato in our community.

The visionary leadership of Empowerment Society members is beyond measure, as it helps the YWCA continue to address gender and racial justice issues facing the women and girls of greater Mankato. The generosity of these donors creates organizational stability and long-term impact for this critically-important work.

My passion for YWCA Mankato really comes from the experiences and learning opportunities I've had with the Human Race Radio program on KMSU. Over years of hosting this program I have heard many moving stories from people of color, immigrants and refugees. I support YWCA Mankato because I want my community to be welcoming and compassionate.

We know how vital it is for nonprofits to have committed donors who believe in sustainability. That's why we have continued to make multi-year pledges for more than 7 consecutive years. We admire the work YWCA Mankato does for our community to empower women and girls and strengthen families.
